COMMENT. Daily Post, 1 Nov.: On Saturday Night they [the individuals who disturbed the performance on 28 Oct.] attended again in the Upper Gallery, where having declar'd they came to disturb the Performance, they pursued their former Methods, with the same Success, to the End of the Play; when upon Mr Giffard's informing the Audience who they were, they were unanimously of Opinion to have them turn'd out. . . . The Manager mention'd before cannot be suspected to authorize such Behaviour. . . . But what makes it most unlikely, is, that he sat in the Pit on Thursday, and was seen by every Body to applaud the Play.
