COMMENT. About this time Mr Theo: Cibber Mr Maddocks the wire Dancer, & several other Theatrical performers, with & number of other Passangers embark'd on board the Dublin, Captain White, in order to go to Ireland but the Ship was lost & every Soul perish'd (Cross). As Mr Sparks & others complain'd of Mr Wilkinson for taking them off, it [Diversions of y^e Morning] was intended to be omitted this Night, But the Audience call'd so violently for it, that we were oblig'd to let him Do it—he took off Foote & Sheridan, & wou'd have left out Sparks but y^e Audience wou'd not be satisfied without it—when they first call'd Mr Foote went forward & said as some of the performers had complain'd it was to be omitted; as for being taken off himself he had no Objection to it, as he was always glad to contribute to their Entertainm[en]t &c. (Cross). Mainpiece: Not acted these 2 years [see 14 Oct. 1756]. Receipts: £130 (Cross); £139 10s. (Winston MS 8).
