BF

THE SHIPWRECK'D LOVERS; or, Friendly Perfidy Punished. Cast not listed.
SINGING. A tragi-comic song in the Welch Taste call'd Hugh Morgan's Lamentation by a Choice Spirit from Common's Court.

DANCING. The whole to conclude with a song and dance.

MUSIC. An extraordinary Band of Musick is furnished such as you don't hear every day.

COMMENT. To begin each day at twelve noon and end at ten at night during the short time of St Bartholomew Fair at Yates' (from Drury Lane) Great Concert Hall in the Greyhound Inn, Smithfield. There is a commodious way to the Hall opposite the Sheep-Penn. The diverting entertainment contains the distresses of a young lady that was stolen by a French pirate; the gallantry of an English Captain who rescued her; their unfortunate shipwreck, and their being thrown upon a desolate island; their sufferings through famine; the unexpected relief they met with on a part of the island; governed only by women; their being afterwards seized as pirates; the punishment inflicted on them by the Female Government; and their amazing delivering by the Queen's finding her husband and her only son, whom she had lost and thought dead upwards of twenty years. Interspersed with the comical and diverting adventures of Lt Fireball, a true English Tar, Noddy a distressed Beau, Snivel Thimble, a tailor; Splitfarthing an Old Userer; and Glisterspite a Finical Surgeon. In which will be introduced a Dialogue between Mynheer Vanflawkin, a Dutchman, and Mynheer—the German.

THE FRENCH FLOOG'D; or, The English Sailors in America. Together with the Reception of Capt. Briton at the Indian Court; the Manners, Customs, Ceremonies, and Dresses of that Country. With their smoking the Calumett of Peace, and presenting the Wampum Belt for his Bravery in rescuing the Princess Sachema from the French Banditi. Interspersed with the Droll Behaviour and Odd Adventures of MacDermott Geoghaghan Ballinbrogue, and the Witch of the Woods; or, a Woman without a Head.

SINGING. A Duet, The Humours of Bartholomew Fair by Alley Croaker and Signora Ciperini. And a Song on the late glorious success gained over the French by his Serene Highness Prince Ferdinand.

COMMENT. At Shuter's New Booth, George Inn Yard, West Smithfield. Boxes 2s. 6d. Pit 1s. 6d. First Gallery 1s. Upper Gallery 6d. To begin each day at Twelve Noon. An Excellent Band of Musick is provided. The Scenes and Habits all entirely new.

Public Advertiser, 22 Aug.: Whereas the partnership between Mess Shuter and Yates has been dissolved; and as Mr Shuter intends to carry on the Business in a more extensive manner than has been performed hitherto, he is now at a great Expence erecting a Repository in an entirely new Taste, in the George Inn Yard . . . providing new, nice, and different Assortments of Theatrical Wares, such as Wit, Humour, Incidents, American Interludes, black and white, Duets and Dances, of which the Public will be informed by Catalogue of the whole Stock, which will be delivered Gratis to his Friends and Customers . . . He flatters himself that no Person will serve them better or cheaper, for ready Money only, and all purchases of Five Pounds worth or upwards, shall be allowed 5 per cent of Discount. That
