Benefit for Use of the Society at the Thatched – House Tavern For the release and discharge of persons imprisoned for small debts. [The Epilogue was written by Cumberland. (See Folger Library Theatrical Clippings). The Curtain rises and discovers a prison; at some distance a woman, poorly habited, and in a disconsolate attitude; after standing some time motionless, in a posture of fixed attention she speaks]
*Woman: Thou loathsome dungeon in whose dreary womb
The pining Debtor finds a living tomb;
Where 'midst the Clank of Chains and Dismal yells
Of shakled felons my sad husband dwells;
From his dark cell, oh give him to my view!
Let him look forth and take a last adieu.*
